Casey, Leslie Cabarga's latest script, recalls Casey at the Bat, Ernest Lawrence Thayer's vivid old baseball poem. Once, fat-bottomed scripts like Casey were everywhere. Today they often survive as logos for Campbell's soup, Ford, Coca Cola, and, of course, the Dodgers, yet no recent baseball jersey has been complete without lettering embroidered in this classic form. Cabarga restores the swinging style to current typographic usage ; FB 2003-07
