At last, an ultra-atomic connected script for the new millennium, brought to us from the fifties by Leslie Cabarga. He based this cool font on logos from the second wave of the all-American diner, bands of stainless steel & glass spreading across the land at war's end. Greasy fries & gas-guzzling autos may be the downside of the fabulous fifties. He discovers the upside in the huge exuberance of these hand-lettered scripts; FB 1995
